

ALGOMA CENTRAL CORPORATION

MAJORITY VOTING POLICY

The Board of Directors of the Company believes that each of its members should carry the confidence and support of the shareholders. To this end, the directors have unanimously adopted a majority voting policy. This policy requires any nominee for election to the Board of Directors for which the number of shares withheld was greater than the number of shares voted in favour of the nominee to submit his or her resignation promptly after the meeting to the Corporate Governance Committee for its consideration. The Committee will make a recommendation to the Board after reviewing the matter and the Board's decision to accept or reject the resignation will be publicly disclosed. The nominee will not participate in any Committee or Board deliberations in considering the resignation. Future nominees for election to the Board will be asked to subscribe to this statement before their names are put forward.
